Facial treatments

The skin reflects everything – external influences, diseases or insufficient care. To some extent these factors leave their mark, but they almost always alter the skin structure and among other things, lead to wrinkles and blemishes. A major cause of skin aging is that older skin loses its vitality and the ability to retain moisture.

QMS Cosmetics prevent this from happening. They naturally stimulate the formation of new cells, whereby high-percentage collagen is stored in deep layers of the skin.

Classic collagen

A bespoke treatment that pampers the skin at the highest level, suitable even for sensitive skin. Premium collagen formulations combined with precise, soothing massage techniques deeply regenerate the skin from within and deliver intense hydration. The result is visibly firmer, radiant, and rejuvenated skin—reminiscent of an exclusive beauty ritual.
